

Booth 1

Svetlana Lechkina

Medium: Fiber (2-D)

I create my artworks using an ancient technique called quilling when long thin strips of paper are rolled and shaped and combines to make a design, be it a nature scene or abstract.

Fredericksburg, VA

Tranquility By Design

www.lanalechkina.com

Booth 2

Maria Grummons

Medium: Painting

I explore nature abstractly by applying acrylic paint on canvas. The process is organic and an intuitive process dictates the outcome. Many layers are applied and subtracted with washes and glazing.

Virginia Beach, VA

Maria Caravas Grummons

www.mariagrummons.com

Booth 3

Russell Turnage

Medium: Ceramics

I create wheel-thrown functional porcelain pottery. Surfaces are carved, applied, and sliptrailed with images of fish, fossils and marine flora. Fired to cone 12 in reduction high-fire gas kiln.

Lanexa, VA

Russell Turnage Porcelain

Booth 4

Dan Currier

Medium: Wood

As a wood turning artist, I strive to create pieces that showcase the beauty and versatility of this natural material.

Richmond, VA

Currier Turned

currierturned.com

Booth 5

Jacquilyn Berry

Medium: Painting

I begin and end with thin glazing layers of paint slowly building up depth and luminosity.

Richmond, VA

Jacquilyn Berry Paintings

www.jacquilynberypaintings.com

Booth 6

Caroline Clarke

Medium: Fiber (3-D)

I am third generation in the art of making leather. I design my own patterns that I hand cut out of cowhide leather. I then sew the purse together for that one of kind look.

Thomaston, GA

Booth 7

Anne Britt

Medium: Jewelry

Using bead weaving techniques I make unique lightweight wearable jewelry. Primary materials used include seed beads, crystals and pearls to create wearable statement pieces.

Ebony, VA

Anne's Beaded Jewelry

Booth 8

Tammy Rosenow

Medium: Ceramics

By blending slip-painting and sculptural elements into my wheel-thrown and hand-built pottery, I express a narrative that reflects my enduring passion for both living beings and their environments.

South Williamsport, PA

TLQPottery

TLQPottery.com

Booth 9

Varnamulu Bulusu

Medium: Painting

Hand painted by me using acrylics, Dot Mandala Artworks that have symmetry and continuity in the design flow and patterns.

Sterling, VA

VARNAMULU

Booth 10

Stephen Moore

Medium: Photography

I use NIKON Pro Cameras to take all images showcased. None of the photos use aquariums. All printing is done in house using EPSON printer and high quality EPSON paper and inks. All mats are cut and mounted in house.

N Chesterfield, VA

Sea and Coastal Photography

www.seaandnature.com

Booth 11

Michael Cruz

Medium: Wood

I create wood bowls on a lathe from locally sourced wood. Each piece of wood is selected for its character, and through pleasing form and finish, each one bridges the gap between art and utility.

Keedysville, MD

www.knottybynature.net

Booth 12

Robin Sesan

Medium: Graphics/Printmaking

My one of a kind monoprints are created on a clay slab base and I use pigmented wet clay as my paint. I pull prints from the slab using a roller and recycled material.

Wilmington, DE

Robin Sesan Art

www.robinsesanart.com

Booth 13

Daniel Christie

Medium: Ceramics

Wheel-thrown and altered, high-fired stoneware. Multiple layers of homemade glazes. Fired in a large gas kiln to 2350 degrees in reduction-type atmosphere.

King George, VA

Hot Rock Pottery

www.hotrockpottery.com

Booth 14

Jenn Clemons

Medium: Painting

I draw inspiration from nature, starting with graphite, pastels, and oils. I strip away the landscape, focusing on the tree's pure form, layering and refining through gestures, paint, and texture.

Newport News, VA

jennclemonsfineart.com

Booth 15

Lori Leist

Medium: Painting

I create vibrant landscape and floral paintings, in acrylic or oil. Bright colors and a modern impressionist brush stroke contribute to an energetic atmosphere, which I hope will uplift the viewer.

Bedford, VA

lorileist.com

Booth 16

Carlos Zepeda

Medium: Jewelry

My work is very simple keeping the traditional way of using just fire and the elements of nature..all my work is done by hand.my unique jewelry featuring shells and gemstones set in sterling silver.

Edgewater, MD

Cozaana

Booth 17

Lisa Melita

Medium: Ceramics

Wheel thrown, slipcast and altered and handbuilt works all using stoneware clay bodies.

Norfolk, VA

LisaMelitaArt

lisamelitaart.etsy.com

Booth 18

Tracy Anderson

Medium: Painting

Acrylic paint on gallery-wrapped canvas. My fairly realistic portraits are set on abstract backgrounds, utilizing color and texture to help portray their personality.

Suffolk, VA

Tracy Anderson Artist

tracyandersonartist.com

Booth 19

Patricia Baker

Medium: Jewelry

I use many techniques including forming in a hydraulic press, repousse' and anodizing titanium. I like to mix metals and sometimes use unusual materials such as mastodon ivory and found objects.

Baltimore, MD

Pat Baker Jewelry

patbakerjewelry.com

Booth 20

Cecky Ropelewski

Medium: Mixed Media (2-D)

Watercolor on handmade paper embellished with beading, feathers, jewelry, leather, fur, and marquetry.

Walkerton, VA

autumnroadmusic.com

Booth 21

Jessica Pasquale

Medium: Painting

I paint loose edge, non-objective abstracts and abstract florals with lots of texture, and messy movements. I apply multiple layers where each one peeks through the other creating a unique painting.

Raleigh, NC

Pierce Paints

piercepaints.com

Booth 22

Michael Carroll

Medium: Mixed Media (3-D)

studies in the use of oil, acrylic, and latex paints with plaster, cements, glue, wood, etc. A custom frame to enhance and complete the artistic expression is included.

Cochranville, PA

Dimensional Art by Michael A. Carroll

www.dimensionalarartbymac.com

Booth 23

David Malmquist

Medium: Photography

My photography focuses on nature and I use the vibrancy of dye-sublimated metal prints to bring my photos to life. My favorite subjects are the fauna, flora, and waterscapes of the Chesapeake Bay.

Williamsburg, VA

Iron Branch Nature Art

Booth 24

Kevin Howard

Medium: Ceramics

My work consists of unglazed stoneware planters and pots, individually wheel-thrown and altered/sculpted by hand, using a variety of natural and stained clays for a cohesive, modern, earthy aesthetic.

Lucama, NC

Aloe Frost

aloe-frost.com

Booth 25

Teresa Howard

Medium: Fiber (3-D)

A line of whimsical fabric handbags, pooches and totes. Each bag an unexpected, colorful combination of two or more fabrics and trims. A fun and whimsical combination of patterns, colors and textures.

Richmond, VA

The Passage

Booth 26

Kristi Garthwaite

Medium: Drawing

I create unique black & white, pen & ink botanical artwork using archival quality technical fineliner pens and mixed media paper. The style is my own take on the scientific illustration technique.

Mechanicsville, VA

KRISTI GARTHWAITE

www.kristinoelart.com

Booth 27

Carla Pillsbury

Medium: Ceramics

My ceramic work focuses on clean and simple pottery for the home. All pieces are wheel thrown or hand built with care to retain the spirit of the hand while providing functional and joyful tableware.

Richmond, VA

lifeware

wareforlife.com

Booth 28

Amy Snowden

Medium: Jewelry

Original miniature watercolor paintings are handcrafted into unique pieces of jewelry using glass, sterling silver, natural gemstones and leather.

Kill Devil Hills, NC

Mary Maveline Originals

Marymavelineoriginals.com

Booth 29

Barbra Myers

Medium: Painting

After applying a texture to the canvas, I use the shapes to create a composition. Using oils I aim for movement and energy. I finish the painting with a sealer that adds a bit of shine.

Virginia Beach, VA

b mann myers art

bmannmyers.com

Booth 30

Jennifer Campagna

Medium: Glass

Utilizing glass powders, crushed glass, and sheet glass in a kiln forming process to create various works of art.

Medford, NJ

Booth 31

Ninika Gordon

Medium: Jewelry

Inspired by natural shapes and forms, all pieces are hand fabricated in sterling silver, 18k gold bi-metal and 24k gold keum-boo. Textures are achieved by roller printing, forging and stamping.

Madison, VA

Phineas Rose Jewelry Studio

phineasrose.com

Booth 32

Tiffany Heiser

Medium: Drawing

I use a scribbling type technique with my brush and Japanese watercolor paint, Kuretake. I use multiple layers of watercolor, in my attempts to capture the subject matter's natural complexity.

Poquoson, VA

The Ship's Hold

theshipsholdstore.com

Booth 33 & 35

Mark Hamm

Medium: Wood

Hand eye shaping of cherry wood with bandsaw and sanders ,mineral oil finish

Lenhartsville, PA

Chester P. Basil's Wooden Spoons LLC

CPBasils.com

Booth 34

Phillip Snider

Medium: Photography

Using digitally captured images, I print on archival-quality paper, canvas, and metal using pigment-based inks for longevity.

Gum Spring, VA

Phillip A. Snider Photography

pasnider.smugmug.com

Booth 36

Katie Crawford

Medium: Painting

I paint with watercolor on paper or watercolor and gesso combined on paper. With watercolor pieces I draw a detailed pencil sketch. For mixed pieces I create the background first then add characters.

Fayetteville, NC

Katie Crawford Art

katiecrawfordart.com

Booth 37

Mary Huennekens

Medium: Fiber (2-D)

Traditional American, Asian, African quilt methods inspire my work. Fabric piecing, couching, embroidery, appliqué, and quilting create texture, depth, and movement.

Saluda, VA

Seahorse Quilts

Booth 38

Laura Richard

Medium: Jewelry

I sculpt jewelry using clay, metal and stones.

Rapidan, VA

Red Willow Jewelry Co.

redwillowjewelryco.com

Booth 39

James Chamberlain

Medium: Metalworks

Hand wrought solid brass objects: Candle holders, traditional, modern, special order. Also several types of marine cannons. All pieces are hand turned on a lathe.

Jim has been doing brass since 1979.

Toano, VA

Chamberlain Brass

Booth 40

Lennin Rodriguez

Medium: Painting

I use acrylic paints on canvas using a fluid art technique by manipulating the paint with my breath or blow dryer. I also use modeling paste to create 3D effects and designs.

Accokeek, MD

Art by Lennin

Booth 41

Elisabeth Arzt

Medium: Jewelry

One-of-a-kind jewelry is crafted with a deep sense of care and intention. Each piece is a journey, shaped by the vision and dedication of its maker. Every detail is considered and refined by hand, car

Adamstown, MD

Fine Arzt

finearzt.com

Booth 42

Scott Supraner

Medium: Ceramics

Wheel thrown and slab built stoneware pottery and ceramic wall reliefs detailed with original carvings, hand painted designs, and studio mixed glazes.

Charlottesville, VA

Hawksbill Pottery/ Supraner Ceramics

hawksbillpottery.com

Booth 43

Pawinee McEntire

Medium: Painting

I paint original oil miniatures on canvas, canvas board, wood, and ceramic. I also print fine art giclees from my work.

Winchester, VA

Freehill Studio Inc.

freehillstudio.com

Booth 44

Audrey Hauserman

Medium: Fiber (3-D)

All quilts and table decor are made from 100% cotton fabric & batting and are machine pieced and free-motion machine quilted using original and traditional quilt block designs.

Virginia Beach, VA

Hauserman Quilts

hausermanquilts.com

Booth 45

Jessie Rublee

Medium: Ceramics

I create functional stoneware pottery that unites contemporary, minimalist design with traditional style. My line of work includes mugs, bowls, serving dishes, vases and more.

Staunton, VA

Jessie Rublee Ceramics

jessierubleeceramics.square.site

Booth 46

Jane Keckler

Medium: Painting

I search for the ethereal look of glass in my watercolors. I paint on canvas on large stretcher boards as well as mulberry paper which is perfect for wildfowl because of its texture.

Williamsburg, VA

kecklerfineart

kecklerfineart.com

Booth 47

Travis Daniels

Medium: Wood

Combining the beauty of live edge hardwoods and epoxy to create one-of-a-kind tables, serving trays, clocks, chess sets, lazy Susan's and cutting boards. Each piece is hand crafted one at a time.

Poquoson, VA

Danwood Design

Danwooddesign.com

Booth 48

Prachi Singh

Medium: Jewelry

I make lightweight statement fiber earrings using cotton/silk, brass metal and 14k gold-filled earwires. I use square/double knots and various weaving/wrapping techniques to make intricate pattern.

Williamsburg, VA

Prachi's Bohemian Art

prachisbohemianart.com

Booth 49 & 51

Monica Barker

Medium: Wood

Crabtree Falls Designs was created out of our love for nature. We create keepsake artwork out of natural woods, shell & leather. We are well known in VA and TN for our inlay & layered artwork.

Lynchburg, VA

Crabtree Falls Designs

crabtreefallsdesigns.com

Booth 50

Kati Brantley

Medium: Jewelry

Using traditional methods and techniques (non-digital) I create whimsical, wearable works of art in gold and silver, set with ethically sourced gemstones and accented with hand engraving.

Rockbridge Baths, VA

Kati Bee Artisan Jewelry

katibee.net

Booth 52

Jennifer Beaudoin

Medium: Glass

My kiln-fused glass oil candles include a "hero" element. Candle tiles are cold-worked with my signature corner bevel, fire-polished, drilled for the glass wick, and Hxtal-glued to the oil reservoir.

Kensington, MD

Beaudoin Glass

beaudoinglass.com

Booth 53

Alexandra Neckopulos

Medium: Graphics/Printmaking

Designs start as marker drawings, colors are separated into black ink drawings on acetate. These are used to create silkscreen stencils I print by hand.

Each frame is built from recycled pallet wood.

Richmond, VA

Analog Artworks

analogartworks.com

Booth 54

Christianne Allison

Medium: Painting

Christianne is a landscape artist using both acrylic and oil mediums on canvas. She paints both in studio and en Plein Air to create her works, with impressionist and realist brushstrokes.

Williamsburg, VA

Christianne Allison Fine Art

www.etsy.com/shop/Christiannefineart?ref=seller-plat

Booth 55

David Clark

Medium: Ceramics

My work is created on the potters wheel to which I then alter or add handles. The work is then glazed with a spray gun to create unique surfaces to each piece.

Charlotte, NC

Mudslinger Pottery

Booth 56

Jack Arbogast

Medium: Mixed Media (3-D)

Wood and epoxy are used to create functional art (furniture, cutting/charcuterie boards). I like using clear over colored epoxy to insert items such as shells, wine corks, smoke and to see live edge

Williamsburg, VA

ArboWoodworks LLC

ArboWoodworks.com

Booth 57 & 59

Leanne Moss

Medium: Painting

Oil on canvas landscape paintings of rural Virginia. Expressive realism focusing on texture with brush and palette knife. Print reproductions done on Epson p900 on archival Aurora Bright paper.

Windsor, VA

Leanne Moss Art

Leannemossart.com

Booth 58

Joy Hannan-Copanezos

Medium: Jewelry

Extraordinary mermaid jewelry in precious metals with genuine gemstones. Made by hand by me, one at a time using traditional metalsmithing hand tools. Fun and whimsical, they all have names.

Atlantic Highlands, NJ

Joy Hannan Designs

kidoodles.com

Booth 60

Stephen Dill

Medium: Metalworks

Blacksmithing using traditional & contemporary methods. Botanical models used for decorative ornamental work; traditional designs for architectural work such as hinges, shutter dogs, hooks.

Frederick, MD

Monocacy Forge

monocacyforge.com

Booth 61

Ryan Eure

Medium: Jewelry

I use lost wax modeling and casting. I create jewelry in platinum, gold, and silver that accentuates the natural beauty & luster of each gemstone.

I specialize in custom design & wire wrapped jewelry

Williamsburg, VA

Ryan Eure Designs

ryaneuredesigns.com

Booth 62

Brie Hayden

Medium: Drawing

I create hyperrealistic graphite drawings on cotton paper. I work entirely freehand, without tracing or using stencils. All of my work is professionally framed with UV protective and anti-glare glass.

Richmond, VA

Brie Hayden

www.briehayden.com

Booth 63

Kevin Chen

Medium: Painting

I use bamboo brushes freely with ink & colors extracted mostly from natural material to paint on silk or handmade rice paper using brushstroke techniques.

Cary, NC

Booth 64

Jason Benkendorf

Medium: Wood

I use locally sourced trees and through a process of using a chainsaw, band saw and wood lathe. I make one of a kind functional bowls and pieces of art for families to enjoy for years.

Hopewell, VA

RedeemedWoodturning

www.redeemedwoodturning.com

Booth 65

Angela Tubalado

Medium: Jewelry

At Arid Flowers, I dry and press all the flowers individually. All pressed flowers are then used in jewelry, hair accessories and keepsakes with the preservation of resin.

Williamsburg, VA

Arid Flowers

AridFlowersByAngie.Etsy.com

Booth 66

P. Muzi Branch

Medium: Painting

I create representational and abstract images using acrylic, oil, and watercolor paint. I use a variety of substrates which include paper, wood, and canvas. I also offer limited edition giclee's

Richmond, VA

Muzi Graphics & Fine Art

bestblackartimages.com

Booth 67

Dana Conner

Medium: Drawing

I'm a pastel artist that uses pastemat paper and specializes in different varieties of soft pastels, pan pastels and pastel pencils for details.

I do landscapes and portraits of animals.

Moyock, NC

Art by Dana Conner

ArtbyDanaConner.com

Booth 68

Olena McLaughlin

Medium: Jewelry

Jewelry is wire-wrapped with focus on wire-weaving to create unique designs. Materials include genuine gemstones, sterling silver, copper, and 14k gold-filled wire. Jewelry is antiqued with patina.

Fredericksburg, VA

ElenA Jewelry Art

elenajewelryart.square.site

Booth 69 & 71

Tess Aksamitova

Medium: Mixed Media (3-D)

Each sculpture is made from black annealed wire ranging from 0.3mm - 2mm width. They are made from scratch with no forms, kits are used no soldering to connect wires. Every peace is wrapped by hand.

Pittsboro, NC

Booth 70

Catherine Nocon

Medium: Painting

My original watercolors convey the beauty of botanicals using a wide range of vivid colors and creating unique images. Each piece captures various colors and textures that flow through each subject.

Chesapeake, VA

Catherine L Nocon Watercolor Artist

Booth 72

Donna Silvestri

Medium: Jewelry

Eco-chic hand-knotted, and hand-crocheted, jewelry featuring ancient-to-vintage materials that I have traveled the world to discover. Each piece is infused with dimension, dramatic color, and texture.

Richmond, VA

on u jewelry

onujewelry.com

Booth 73

Kathy Wooldridge

Medium: Glass

I create original window panels and sculptural pieces using sand carved & stained glass techniques.

Newport News, VA

Wooldridge Art Glass Design LLC

wooldridgeglass.com

Booth 74

Elizabeth Wise

Medium: Ceramics

Stoneware with slips and glazes I make (except underglazes and clear glaze); mid-fire electric or high-fire wood kilns; no slip-casting; handbuilding, wheel throwing, hand-carving and -painting

Richmond, VA

Elizabeth Wise Ceramics

www.elizabethwise.com

Booth 75

Ivan Pesic

Medium: Painting

I paint semi abstract, heavy body acrylic paintings and palette knife on stretched canvas or different types of flat surfaces including paper, wood, and more.

Waynesboro, VA

www.ipartstudio.com

Booth 76

Laura Moore

Medium: Jewelry

The jewelry is made with natural gemstones, sterling silver (.925), freshwater pearls and Swarovski crystal. Techniques include PMC clay, silver fusion, beading, wire-wrapping and chain mail.

Annapolis, MD

Laura Moore Designs

www.lauramooredesigns.com

Booth 77

Kelsey Courage

Medium: Jewelry & Glass

K.Courage Jewelry is carved & cast sterling silver/bronze using lost wax casting. Artisan Collections include wood inlay, hand faceted gems, and pearls. Whimsical mermaid crowns & glass accessories.

Virginia Beach, VA

www.kcouragedesigns.com

Booth 78

James Pugh

Medium: Wood

I use traditional gouges and techniques to hand-turn wood bowls on a lathe using recycled wood supplied by a local arborist (all of the wood used is otherwise destined for landfills.)

Powhatan, VA

Hearth & Cricket

Booth 79

Andy Smith

Medium: Painting

Hand-drawn, transparent watercolor paintings. Using a series of washes to build color, shadows and a strong use of light. Traditional subjects in a realistic style.

Lititz, PA

www.andysmithartist.com

Booth 80

Kate Loomis

Medium: Jewelry

Metal Clay is composed of powdered metal and binder, which allows it to take handmade textures really well. My unique designs feature cabochons I cut to highlight their interesting colors or patterns.

Henrico, VA

Kate Loomis Jewelry

KateLoomisJewelry.com

Booth 81

John Kara

Medium: Wood

Lamination of hardwoods hand cut on a bandsaw to create segmented minimalistic 3D wall art sculptures. Materials include Wenge, Bubinga, Oak, Paduak, Walnut, Ebiara, Maple, Mahogany, and more.

Murrysville, PA

Kara Wood Designs Too

karawooddesigns.com

Booth 82

LaKeisha Cooper

Medium: Ceramics

Wheel thrown ceramics using various types of stoneware clay. Vessels are hand-carved, hand painted using various types of glazes, and fired in an electric kiln to a temperature of 2200 degrees.

Williamsburg, VA

CIK Ceramics LLC

Booth 83

Arista Wilson

Medium: Painting

I paint with gouache on mounted birch panels, as well as on paper. My paintings often resemble screenprints because I paint the negative space to retain a luminosity in the light colors.

Blacksburg, VA

Arista Wilson

aristawilson.com

Booth 84

Icka Cantilo

Medium: Jewelry

I cut each design completely by hand using a jewelers' saw, fabricate, form, texture, patina & champlevé with vitreous glass enamel. Sterling silver, Rose gold, 14k Yellow gold & nickel free copper.

Henrico, VA

Square of the Bone

www.squareofthebone.com

Booth 85

Ashley Rawls

Medium: Jewelry

Handmade jewelry created by two sisters on the Outer Banks, NC inspired by the sea and nature. Created with precious metals and gems.

Kill Devil Hills, NC

All Washed Up Jewelry

www.allwashedupjewelry.etsy.com

Booth 86

Teri Moser

Medium: Mixed Media (3-D)

Sand & drill unfinished wood. Design with repurposed items like corks, paper, gift bags, metal, lichen along with charms, and broken jewelry, paint, clay, rocks even glass. Lastly coat with resin.

greensboro, NC

Rockness Momster

rocknessmomster.com

Booth 87

Heather Ely

Medium: Ceramics

My work is a mix of wheel-thrown and hand-built pieces made from white stoneware with some accents in colored porcelain clays. Designs utilize colorful underglazes, transfers, and midfire glazes.

Staunton, VA

PIECE Pottery Studio

Booth 88

Jill Colmery

Medium: Metalworks

Limited Edition Creations, hand made from America made materials, Items include: Silver rings, Silver earrings, Silver Bracelets. Hand rubbed and patina finishes on Copper earring, bracelets .

Virginia Beach, VA

Ocean Otis Jewelry LLC

OceanOtisJewelry.com

Booth 89

Melanie Schaefer

Medium: Jewelry

Sterling silver jewelry meticulously crafted with wire, natural gemstones and variety of metalsmithing techniques. Inspired by the natural beauty around us and the gorgeous gemstones I work with.

Singers Glen, VA

Designs By Melanie

DesignsbyMelanie.com

Booth 90

Nadya Gordon

Medium: Painting

I paint with acrylics on stretched canvas.

Leesburg, VA

Nadya's Art Gallery

nadyasartgallery.com

Booth 91

Rikki Emerson

Medium: Mixed Media (3-D)

I prep a gallery wrapped canvas and paint with Acrylics. I then enhance art piece with fire glass, vitrigraph, broken glass, stained glass, beads and/or shells.

The piece is finished in a 2 part epoxy resin.

Newport News, VA

From Land Sea and Me

fromlandseaandme.com

Booth 92

Fatima Campbell

Medium: Jewelry

Each piece is create with a form that is undetermined. My Jewelry is all freeformed.
I use sterling silver and gold filled wire. First, I shared each piece, pound each piece, and then wrap each piece.

Silver Spring, MD

Wire Art Design

www.wireartdesigns.com

Booth 93

Erinn Adomanis

Medium: Jewelry

Handmade jewelry with gemstone, freshwater pearl and sterling silver. Unique designs and color combinations using wire wrapped and soldering techniques.
Metaphysical pairings to promote health, healing and beauty.

Ellicott City, MD

Grace A Mano

www.graceamano.com

Booth 94

Michelle Tordoff

Medium: Mixed Media (3-D)

Cut by jigsaw, painted with professional acrylics and poured in epoxy resin, each piece is a unique painting for outdoors or indoors.

Manquin, VA

Door du Jour 9

doordujour9.com

Booth 95

Paul Strzemienski

Medium: Wood

Wooden bowls are formed from diseased and green-waste trees. It was noted that a "moment in the tree's life cycle has been captured". Domestic and exotic woods are also fashioned into bowls.

West Grove, PA

PJ'S Woodcrafts

Booth 96

Mary Ellen Wheelock

Medium: Jewelry

Precious metals (major sterling silver) are transformed by sawing, filing, forging, soldering as well as knitting, weaving to create one of a kind jewelry. Handmade lampwork beads may be incorporated.

Midlothian, VA

Simply Charming

Booth 97

Gaia Inker

Medium: Painting

I use both oil and acrylic paint to create colorful works which convey the beauty to be found within ordinary life. I paint a mix of portraits, still lifes, and landscapes.

Sandston, VA

gaiainker.my.canva.site

Booth 98

Valerie Robey

Medium: Ceramics

Handmade pottery pieces that are formed from mid-fire stoneware clay. I typically handbuild my pieces but have started wheel-throwing. I use flowers and leaves for texture in my botanical line.

Kitty Hawk, NC

VR Pottery OBX

vrpotteryobx.com

Booth 99

Amy Brown

Medium: Jewelry

Inspired by mid-century modern design and love of nature. Jewelry handcrafted of responsibly sourced materials: US & EU produced metals, EU vegetable-dyed leather, and semi-precious stones.

Vienna, VA

TiggrLily Farm

Booth 100

Terry Tessler

Medium: Painting

My art combines the use of watercolor paints of vibrant color and color combinations with different resist techniques. The result is an image with fascinating color combinations, blends, and images.

Norfolk, VA

Art By Terry

Booth 101

Tracey McCurley

Medium: Wood

I create hand painted / resin custom wood charcuterie boards, wood burned trivets, coasters and canvas door hangings.

Powhatan, VA

Gift Club Crafts

Booth 102

Mija Moschler

Medium: Jewelry

Hand wired necklaces and earrings made with beautiful gemstones and crystals.

Williamsburg, VA

Mija's Design

Booth 103

Theresa Burrow

Medium: Painting

I work with different types of paint media (acrylic, oils and watercolors) using different ratios of thinners to achieve the desired effect. I sometimes embellish my acrylics and use a two epoxy.

Mechanicsville, VA

Booth 104

Joe Buchholz

Medium: Wood

We create handmade one of a kind tables including coffee, dining room, and end made out of repurposed wood and epoxy resin from the James river. We specialize in charcuterie boards in different sizes.

Virginia Beach, VA

James River Woods